Susan Rainier, AIA, Living Future Accredited & LEED AP BD+C

Susan Rainier, Principal of Angel Eagle Consult, is a California-licensed architect with international design and construction experience based in the Sacramento, California region. She is Chair of AIA Central Valley Committee on the Environment (COTE), Facilitator for the Living Future Institute Collaborative and leader in USGBC Capital Community, She is the Founder and Executive Director of the VISIONARY inspirational speaker series where leading edge game changers are brought to the Sacramento Region.

Susan is a leading speaker and writer addressing man-made climate disruption for water reform, healthy net zero energy buildings, ecologically balanced infrastructure, Biomimicry, interdisciplinary integrated collaboration, sustainable behavior education and Living Buildings & Living Communities.

She is an advocate for restorative, regenerative, resiliency planning and development that respects natural ecosystems, diversity, addresses social equity and follows the precautionary principle – First Do No Harm.